

Envo offers a complete line of home-automation products that makes sophisticated home-control solutions practical and affordable for every home.

With Envo, control your surroundings can never get easier because everything is centrally managed without rewiring - home theater, electronics, lighting, temperature, safety and security systems - all can be controlled by Envotouch™ or voice command, wherever you are.

Envo Controller

Can you image such a small device can have great power that controls everything?

Thanks to today's technology, all the intelligent and multiple communications can be integrated into a tiny device. Envotouch connects to your Internet gateway, lighting system, security and much more.
